What is it for?

This system facilitates openness and transparency in our personal and university business dealings, consistent with our new Conflict of Interest and Conflict of Commitment policy, and promotes documented collaboration between employee and supervisor in efforts to avoid conflicts.

How do I access it?

Via a link provided in annual COI Disclosure email announcements, or visiting USA's How to Disclose web page.

Does this system replace other reporting processes?

Yes, it will replace our prior paper reporting process used by faculty and others involved in research. Visit our COI web page for more information on our COI-related policies, procedures, instructions, and helpful resources.

External Professional Activities

The system also accommodates an electronic request process for External Prof
Prof

Can I follow up to assure my Disclosure Form has been reviewed?